Teaching Assistants and Sessional Lecturers at the University of Guelph

A wide-angle photograph of the University of Guelph campus. The central focus is a large, multi-story stone building with a prominent clock tower. The building has a classic architectural style with many windows and a dark roof. In the foreground, there are green trees and a paved walkway where several people can be seen walking. The sky is overcast with grey clouds.

MEMBERS IN GOOD STANDING

We would like to encourage all those who have not become a Member in Good Standing (MGS) yet to consider doing so! Having many MGS demonstrates to the University that we are a strong Union, allowing us to push for initiatives that can improve the working and living conditions for TAs and Sessionals (e.g., higher wages, job security, fair work conditions). If you're not an MGS yet, sign up now by filling out the online form here or scanning the QR code on the left.

ENDING THE ACADEMIC YEAR

As we approach the end of the academic year, please be sure to file your emergency financial assistance fund (EFAF) claims and benefits by August 31, 2023 for this academic year. Unit 1 members may apply for the EFAF fund once per academic year (September 2022-August 2023).

THE BARGAINING PROCESS

On August 31, our current Collective Agreements will expire. That's why on May 1st, we served the University with a "notice to bargain," which begins the formal bargaining process for Unit 1 (TAs) and 2 (Sessional Lecturers). The notice is legally required to inform the University that we are ready to begin bargaining new Collective Agreements and would like to find dates for negotiations. We expect this work to begin in September. In the meantime, our current collective agreements will remain in effect.

WHAT WE'VE BEEN DOING TO PREPARE

Your bargaining committee has been hard at work for many months:

- We have been reviewing the responses to the members' bargaining survey we disseminated several months ago so we know exactly what your priorities are.
- We have been reviewing other Collective Agreements in the sector to identify additional items for negotiating.
- We have gone over Unit 1 and 2's current Collective Agreements, looking for improvements
- We have looked over issues and grievances from the life of the current Collective Agreements to help guide proposals.
- We are meeting regularly to develop bargaining points

EXPERIENCING DIFFICULTIES IN YOUR ROLE AS A WORKER? WE CAN HELP

Our Labor relations Coordinator is here to advise you

Reach out to Jeffrey Cornelissen labourrelations@cupe3913.on.ca to discuss the issue and get insights into possible solutions.

Some things to know about resolving work issues

The earlier you contact us, the better

If an issue has arisen, contact us as soon as possible with the pertinent details so that we can offer you guidance on how to proceed.

You are in charge of all decisions

There are many ways a work issue can be resolved; we can lay out your options so that you can make an informed decision that works best for you. However, only you will decide what will happen.

EXPERIENCING DIFFICULTIES IN YOUR ROLE AS A WORKER? WE CAN HELP

One option is an informal resolution

The Union can bring the issue to the Office of Faculty and Academic Staff Relations (FASR) in the hopes that it will be addressed appropriately. We will discuss with you how we will present the problem to FASR to ensure your comfort. Note that we are able to settle the vast majority of issues through this route.

Another option is to file a grievance

If the matter is more serious or is not resolved appropriately through the informal route, we can file a formal grievance (though only if this is a route that you choose).

What is a grievance?

A grievance is a complaint put forth by the Union articulating that the employer has acted (or failed to act) in a way that violates the Collective Agreement. A grievance by the Union on behalf of the member.

Find more information about grievances and the grievance process on our website here.

HAVING MONEY PROBLEMS?

Apply for the Emergency Financial Assistance Fund (EFAF)

Unit 1 members (TAs) experiencing financial hardships may apply for up to $500 in financial assistance per academic year. To be eligible, you must have had a work assignment within the past year

How do I apply?
